Headline:
Sunshine and showers on Wednesday.

Today:
Another fine and bright start. Sunny spells and scattered, slow-moving showers developing late morning onwards, some heavy and locally thundery by the afternoon. Mainly light winds and feeling warm in sunshine between the showers. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers dying out slowly this evening with cloud thinning after midnight leaving lengthy clear spells which will allow mist and fog patches to form inland. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Thursday:
After a fine bright start to the day with light winds, cloud will increase through the morning as the breeze freshens. Showers developing through the afternoon some heavy or thundery. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Sunny spells and showers each day with a risk of thundery downpours each afternoon, perhaps with longer spells of rain Friday and Saturday. Becoming breezier. Temperatures a little below normal.
